The University of Wales Trinity Saint David's (UWTSD) Royal Charter is the oldest in England and Wales after the universities of Oxford and Cambridge.

The Academy of Sinology was jointly established by the Chin Kung Multicultural Education Foundation and UWTSD in 2016. Based on United Kingdom and UWTSD educational frameworks, the Academy offers postgraduate, undergraduate and foundation programmes. Teaching is centred on pre-modern Chinese texts with an immersive, focussed learning approach – only one module is taught at any time – allowing students to explore each module in depth. The aim is to develop educators with strong ethical orientation, well-developed academic knowledge and skills, and the ability to promote cross-cultural dialogue for global harmony. The Academy adopts English-Chinese bilingual teaching with 80 percent of the lectures delivered in Chinese and 20 percent in English; 60 percent of the assessments are conducted in Chinese and 40 percent in English.
